

Request for Internship Release Time

The NSAPP grant has funds available to support participants by allowing them “release time” from their classroom teaching in order to participate in internship time to perform administrative tasks which will inform their understanding and practice as leaders.

The first internship in our program is tied to the course, “Learning as Leadership and the Politics of Schooling” provided by Tim Begaye.

For this first internship, one credit hour, 15 hours of contact time is allowed for “release time”.

To begin the process of making this first internship successful, please provide the following information:

Student Name:
School/Location of Internship:
Name of Person who Approves Release Time
Phone Number:
Email Address:
Start Date – End Date

Describe Process for Requesting Release Time at your School:

At this time, what days and hours of the day would work best for you to be released from your classroom?
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

Please return this from to Ms. Emerson or Ms. Nakaidinae